Caption 1 — Product Showcase (AIDA Framework)

Close your eyes and imagine this. ✨

A warm butter croissant, golden and flaky on the outside, soft and cloud-like inside — fresh out of the oven at 8AM. A Velvet Latte beside it, rich espresso swirled through silky steamed milk with a dusting of cocoa on top. This is how your morning should feel.

We bake everything fresh every single day. No frozen bases, no shortcuts, no compromises.

Caption 2 — Promotional Post (PAS Framework)

Tired of café food that looks amazing in photos but tastes like disappointment in real life? 😞

You order a cake slice that's been sitting in a display case for three days. The coffee tastes like it came from a packet. You pay 800 rupees and leave wishing you'd stayed home.

At Velvet Crumb, we do things the right way. Every cake is baked today. Every coffee is made to order. Every visit feels like it was worth the trip.

Come in this week and try us. We're confident you'll understand why Rawalpindi keeps coming back. 🍰

First visit? Show us this post and get 10% off your order. 💬 DM us or visit in store.

Caption 3 — Behind the Scenes

6AM. The ovens are already on. 🌅

While Rawalpindi is still asleep, our pastry team is hand-rolling croissant dough, folding layers of butter, and setting the Red Velvet to bake for your afternoon slice. This is the part no one sees — the early hours, the careful measurements, the patience that goes into every bite you take.

We don't use frozen bases or ready-made mixes. Everything starts from scratch because you deserve the real thing.

🎂 Introducing Our July Seasonal Menu — Available This Month Only

Finding a café that actually changes things up is harder than it sounds. Most places serve the same menu, month after month, year after year.

At Velvet Crumb, we launched a brand-new seasonal menu every single month. This July: Mango Cheesecake, Iced Brown Sugar Latte, Lotus Biscoff Tart, and Strawberry Shortcake. All made fresh, all available for a limited time only.

🕒 July menu ends August 1st — don't miss it.

4. Email Subject Lines (2)

Subject Line 1 — Curiosity + Seasonal Hook

“Your July just got sweeter (new menu inside)”

- Why it works: seasonal relevance, emoji stops the eye, ‘new menu inside’ creates curiosity and a reason to open.

“Lotus Crumb, your free cookie expires tonight ”
